The Duet from Vienna again enchanted the audience at the Château de Gizeux

The concert by the Viennese duet was organised for one of the exhibitions at the Château.

Once again on Sunday evening, as part of the intimate “Rez de Chaussée” exhibition, the Château de Gizeux hosted a concert by the Viennese duet comprising Johanna Horny-Neumann at the piano, and Roland Horvath, playing the Viennese horn in F, both highly talented artists. In front of around 20 people they performed works by Johann Strauss, Mozart, Weber, Monti, Mussorgsky and Franz Lehar, excerpts of the major works of these artists, and even a composition Roland Horvath called “Favorita Marsch”. Each work was presented and narrated by Roland Horvath to properly place them in their historical context and era.
